

We have a Nav syatem in our ML430 which we use regularly to travel short trips and to our 2nd home in Seattle, Wa. Our real life saver is our XM radio we installed over 2 years ago. With the ability to have instant traffic updates, see problems, and get alternate routes and all of this without changing stations, WHO in their right minds would want to block this? Please be real!!!!!!!